BRANCH OF HENRICO

In connection with the previously published information as to the Branch family, the following addenda has been communicated by Mr. James Branch Cabell:

QUARTERLY, Vol. XXV., page 62. Thomas<sup>2</sup> Branch is said to have married Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Matthew Gough of Henrico, a burgess for the session beginning 2 March, 1642-3.

Page 65. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Branch, on 4 November, 1685, patented 760 acres in Henrico, on the south side of the river, in the parish of Varina, bordering land owned by Mr. Abell Gower, John Clarke, and Mr. Thomas Branch, Senior. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Branch conveyed 280 acres of this tract to his brother Matthew<sup>3</sup> Branch, for 2,000 pounds of tobacco, by a deed dated and recorded 1 February, 1686-7; and on the same date conveyed to his brother James<sup>3</sup> Branch 200 acres of the same tract, "for love and affection." This transfer would seem to mark the coming age of James<sup>3</sup> Branch.

Page 66. Thomas<sup>4</sup> Branch of Henrico, on 27 September, 1729, patented 390 acres of new land in the fork of the Beaver-Pond branch of Deep Creek in Prince George county. Thomas<sup>4</sup> Branch was evidently the monied member of the family (of which he was the lineal head), and has a number of deeds in Chesterfield, too many to be cited here, dating down to 6 February, 1767, when he conveyed forty-eight acres at the mouth of the Spring branch of Sappony Creek in Chesterfield, to Henry Branch. Thomas<sup>4</sup> Branch presumably died in 1767.

Page 66. William<sup>4</sup> Branch, on 17 August, 1725, patented 400 acres of new land in Henrico, on the north side of Appamattock River, bordering on the said river and on land owned by the patentee and on the land of Mr. Joseph Irby.

Page 67. Matthew<sup>3</sup> Branch married Frances ———, who was a witness at the October Court, 1711. She was probably Frances Ware, a sister of the Caleb Ware, whose will, dated 28 June, 1740, was recorded in Chesterfield 5 October 1750. Matthew<sup>3</sup> Branch, by deeds dated 27 September 1689, recorded in Henrico 1 October 1689, exchanged 200 acres of the 280 deeded him in 1686-7 by his brother Thomas<sup>3</sup> Branch, for the 200 then deeded to James<sup>3</sup> Branch and eighty adjoining acres. Matthew<sup>3</sup> Branch, on 29 October 1696, patented fifty acres in Henrico, escheat from William Jones deceased. Matthew<sup>3</sup> Branch and James<sup>3</sup> Branch, on 24 April 1703, patented 710 acres in Henrico, on the south side of the river, on Bear's branch, Pockashock branch, Grindon's run, and bordering land owned by John Brodnax. Matthew<sup>3</sup> Branch, on 20

October 1704, with Mr. Tho: Jefferson, Tho: Harris, and Tho: Turpin, patented 628 acres in Henrico, on the south side of the river, on "ye branch of Lucy's Spring." Matthew<sup>3</sup> Branch and James<sup>3</sup> Branch, by deeds dated and recorded 1 August 1711, divided equally the 710 acres patented by them in 1703.

Page 69. James<sup>3</sup> Branch, in addition to the preceding data concerning him, has a land patent, dated 18 March 1717-8, for thirty-one acres in Henrico, on the south side of the river, bordering on Kingsland, Seafield, the land of Richard Dennis, of Mr. Thomas Branch, and land owned by the patentee. The will of James<sup>3</sup> Branch was probated in Chesterfield 5 August 1749.

QUARTERLY, Vol. XXV., page 108. John<sup>3</sup> Branch evidently married Martha, daughter of Robert Griegg of Henrico, whose will, dated 10 February 1702-3, recorded 2 August 1703, names his grandchildren John Cocke, Thomas Edwards, Jr., Mary Ward, and Edward Branch, and appoints Jane Gower to be executrix.

Page 113. NOTE 2. A re-reading of the will of Obedience<sup>4</sup> Turpin shows that the Obedience Turpin named therein is described, not as the testator's "daughter," but as her "granddaughter." This legatee was the daughter of Thomas<sup>5</sup> Turpin (compare page 111, line 2). The suggestion that Obedience<sup>4</sup> Branch had by her first marriage a daughter Obedience<sup>5</sup> Cocke, thus falls through so that on page 110 the first line should be canceled; and on page 111, line 16, read "Obedience<sup>5</sup> Turpin, who married, as his second wife, Benjamin<sup>4</sup> Branch (Benjamin<sup>3</sup> Christopher<sup>2</sup> Christopher<sup>1</sup>)."

QUARTERLY, Vol. XXVI., pages 111-113. Matthew<sup>5</sup> Branch had issue, in addition to the three children named, Mary<sup>6</sup> Branch. She is named in her father's will, being bequeathed £250 and a negro girl; and, 25 December 1783, married Benjamin Moseley, then of Chesterfield and afterward of Buckingham county, who served during the Revolution as a first lieutenant of artillery, in the First Battalion of the Virginia Continental Line. Benjamin Moseley died 26 July 1799. His wife was living 11 February 1839, being then "aged seventy-four years." They had issue: William<sup>7</sup> Moseley, who married ——— Logwood; Matthew<sup>7</sup> Moseley; Mary<sup>7</sup> Moseley, who married Rolfe Eldrige (for whose children compare QUARTERLY, Vol. XX., pages 206, 301); Margaret<sup>7</sup> Moseley, who married James Jones; and Lucy<sup>7</sup> Moseley, who married Dr. James Austin.
